Do you have a monitoring protocol, success story, or data findings you would like to share at the National Monitoring Conference in 2019?

Would you like to increase your chances of submitting a successful abstract? If so, this webinar is for YOU.

In this webinar we will:

• Introduce the National Water Quality Monitoring Council and the Council’s Volunteer Monitoring Work Group.

• Explore opportunities for the volunteer monitoring community at the National Monitoring Conference.

• Share key features of writing an effective abstract.

• Question & Answer

Volunteer Monitoring at the National Monitoring Conference and Tips for Getting YOUR Conference Abstract Accepted

Wednesday, July 25, 2018
3:00 PM Eastern, 2:00 PM Central, 1:00 PM Mountain, NOON Pacific

To register, please click here. Preregistration is required, following which you will receive a confirmation email with instructions on joining the webinar.

Workshop Presenters:

Barb Horn
Colorado Parks and Wildlife
Barb.Horn@state.co.us

Mary Skopec
Iowa Lakeside Laboratory
mary-skopec@uiowa.edu

Peggy Compton
University of Wisconsin-Extension
Peggy.Compton@ces.uwex.edu

The Volunteer Monitoring Workgroup of the National Water Quality Monitoring Council is coordinated by:

Julie Vastine
Alliance for Aquatic Resource Monitoring
vastine@dickinson.edu

Danielle Donkersloot
Izaak Walton League
ddonkersloot@iwla.org

This webinar and previous NWQMC webinars can be found online here: https://www.youtube.com/user/NWQMC